Talk-to-Me

A real time social network based chat app made using MEAN stack technologies i.e. Mongodb, Node.js, Angular.js, Express.js.

The app is currently deployed here talk-to-me

Features of this app

1. User can register on the app through by registering on the system or use their google id to signup
2. User can see all other users registered on the system and send friend request to them.
3. User can cancel the friend requests that they have sent and accept or decline the friend requests they have received.
4. User can chat with their friends in real time.
5. All of users chat data is stored in the db to allow future access.
6. User can see which of their friends are online / offline.
7. A users can also change their password if they forget their password on the system.
8. User will get notification when a new friend request is received or their friend requests are accepted or declined.

CreatedBy

Mayank Yadav